

I do NOT want to see cell phones, or internet use on flights. It is too difficult space-wise and the planes are packed as it is. Just like smoking, anyone can wait until they get on the ground to do their business or social functions. Even when people have laptops on their computers, they take over space around their seats. Phone users, even with restrictions on the ground do NOT care about anyone else but themselves.